OF POLICE DEPARTMENT

Ten Indictments Against Charles Knollenberg and George Spires for Operating Slot Machines—Others Are Indicted for Keeping Slot Machines

SPECIAL GRAND JURY AD-
JOURNED UNTIL FRIDAY
MARCH 10

The special grand jury returned sixteen indictments into court Friday morning. Two were against George H. Dunavan, chief of police, and John Kennedy, captain of the night force; ten were joint indictments against Charles Knollenberg and George Spires and one each was returned against Ed Kumle, John Heneghan, Edward Keating and Daniel Keating for keeping slot machines in their places of business and allowing the same to be operated therein.

The indictments against the chief of police contains three counts and charges substantially as follows:

That on Oct. 1, 1904, and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards George H. Dunavan while he the chief of police, a municipal officer of the city of Jacksonville, did unlawfully allow and permit divers gambling devices, commonly known as slot machines, to be and remain accessible to the public in divers saloons in said city; that is to say, a slot machine in the several saloons of the following persons, to-wit: Oliver Henry, Frank Lohman, Anthony Kennedy and George Ferreria, in said city on said days and time which said slot machines were unlawfully run and operated upon chance or hazard for money in said divers saloons, and the said George H. Dunavan then and there therein and there was guilty of a palpable omission of his duty as chief of police aforesaid under and by virtue of the law and ordinances of said city in allowing and permitting said slot machines to run and operate in said city, etc.

The second count in these indictments alleges that said Knollenberg and Spires did unlawfully and wilfully use a certain gambling device commonly known as a slot machine, etc.

Count three charges that said Knollenberg and Spires did unlawfully and wilfully keep and operate a certain slot machine or device into which money is paid and played on chance, etc.

Bond was furnished by Messrs. Dunavan and Kennedy, John A. Ayers, president of the Ayers' National bank, being the bondsmen for Chief Dunavan, and Andrew Russell of the Dunlap-Russel bank and John R. Robertson, cashier of the Jacksonville National bank, being the bondsmen for Captain Kennedy.

Indictments for keeping slot machines were returned against Ed Kumle, John Heneghan, Ed Keating and Daniel Keating.

The jury was in session Friday afternoon and adjourned to reconvene Friday, March 10.

CENTENARY REVIVAL

The following letter of invitation has been sent out to about fifty Methodist Episcopal church ministers by Rev. W. H. Wilder, pastor of Centenary M. E. church. It is expected from the assurances of the presiding elders that the attendance will be large. The Centenary church will begin its long talked of series of evangelistic meetings next Sunday evening, at which time Rev. Robert Stephens is expected to be present in the interest of the aggressive evangelism movement inaugurated by the late general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

"A conference for council and prayer for a revival of religions commensurate with the needs of the present times and the promises of God will be held at Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, Jacksonville, Ill., Tuesday, March 7. The general conference district commissioner on aggressive evangelism, the members of the conference commission from Jacksonville, Springfield and West Jacksonville districts are expected to be present with all preachers who can easily reach Jacksonville.

You are most cordially invited to attend and participate in these counsels.

The ladies of the church extend an invitation to all ministers who receive this invitation and choose to remain all day and night.

"If convenient, please notify the undersigned of your acceptance by March 6.

"With deep interest in this world-wide movement now so victorious in some localities and in a gracious Pontefest for my own church."

palpable omission of his lawful duty.

The indictment against the captain of the night police force, John Kennedy, contains three counts and charges substantially as follows: That said John Kennedy, captain of police of said city, on Oct. 1, 1904, etc., while he was a municipal officer as captain of police, did not enforce ordinances for the closing of saloons in said city between the hours of 10:30 p. m. and 5 a. m., on said days then and there, but did unlawfully fail and neglect so to do which was his duty as captain of police and was guilty of palpable omission of duty contrary to ordinance of said city.

Count two alleges that he as captain of police allowed slot machines in the several saloons of Oliver Henry, Frank Lohman, Anthony Kennedy and George Ferreria to be operated contrary to law, etc.

Count three alleges that on Oct. 1, 1904, etc., as captain of police he was guilty of palpable omission of duty in that he knowingly did allow and permit Newton Sargent, Charles Thompson, Harry Seymour and Fred Dubney each to keep a disorderly or gaming house in violation of law and ordinances of city and did not suppress the continuance of said disorderly houses as required by said law and ordinances.

DEATH RECORD.

HOYT.

Mrs. Mary Rawson Hoyt, passed from earth at 3 o'clock Friday morning at her residence, 1051 West College avenue.

For nearly a year Mrs. Hoyt's health had been failing, and so death came as a blessing from pain into the quietence. Mrs. Hoyt's life was one of service; beautiful service, for she never wearied in doing things for others. Mind and hand were ever busy for her family and friends, forgetful only of herself, she lived in much a life of rare Christian beauty.

Mrs. Hoyt was born at Craftsbury, Vt., and for the past four years had resided in this city with her daughters, Misses Emma and Julia Hoyt, students at the Illinois School for the Deaf. She leaves besides her daughters, her mother, Mrs. Joseph Bartlett, of Barton's Landing, Vermont; one sister, Mrs. George Stone, of Riceville, Iowa, and a brother, Corydon Rawson, of Boston, Mass.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home, 1051 West College avenue. CAMP.

The venerable Mrs. Mary I. Camp died at the home of her son, Elder Joseph Camp, near Riggston, Scott county. Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock of pneumonia. She was one of the old settlers of that part of the county and was 70 years of age at the time of her death. She was a woman of excellent character and had reared a family which did her great credit. She was widely known and respected.

The funeral will be conducted at the family residence Sunday at 2 p.m. by Rev. Mr. Seister, a former pastor.

BLUE.

Herbert Blue, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Blue, died yesterday at the residence, 517 North Sandy street, after only a short illness.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

SIX.

Cavley Six entered into rest Friday morning at 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Smith, 503 East Chambers street, at the age of 78 years. He leaves seven children, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Owen Smith, Ben Six and Mrs. J. B. Crows, all of this city; Mrs. Clara Sappington, of Peoria; James and John Six, of Canton, Mo. His wife and three children preceded him to the better land a number of years ago. He also leaves thirty-two grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Smith, and the remains will be taken to Bluff Sunday for interment. All friends are invited to attend the services at the residence.

ARE NOW AFTER MISSING GROOM

Father Who Found Daughter at Dunlap Hotel Waits Patiently for Prospective Groom—Latter Fails to Appear and Tickets Are Purchased for Chicago.

Further events in the elopement case mentioned in Friday's issue happened yesterday, which were entirely unexpected by the father and changed his original intention of returning to Madison, Mo., on the morning train. Destiny in the form of the girl's will stood in the way and the father was forced to yield.

Mr. Brown and his daughter went to the Wabash station Friday morning and purchased tickets for Hannibal, intending to go on the 10:10 train. They didn't go. At the last moment the daughter asserted her right and refused to accompany her father, without first keeping her appointment with the prospective son-in-law. The father yielded, with the understanding that if he did not put in an appearance during the day that they would leave for Missouri on the evening train. Miss Brown spent the day at the hotel, while her faithful parent met every train which might bear the expected Samuels from Chicago, but the expected did not arrive, or at least had not been seen at latest reports.

Neither did Mr. Brown and his daughter leave for Missouri on the evening train. When asked last night what his plans were, Mr. Brown replied that as his daughter had suffered from the nervous strain and was consequently in a weakened condition and not fit to travel, they would remain in this city until she regained her strength. Their plans evidently suffered another change, however, as they departed upon the 8:54 Wabash train, having purchased tickets for Chicago, evidently in search of the recalcitrant lover.

ANNUAL CONCERT AT HIGH SCHOOL

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS DELIGHTED LARGE AUDIENCE

Fine Program Splendidly Given and Enthusiastically Received—Pupils Deserve Credit for Successful Event

The second annual concert of the musical clubs of the high school Friday evening was a grand success in every particular. The capacity of the large auditorium was taxed to the limit, a number standing during the entire program in the rear of the room. The display of enthusiasm on the part of the audience was unusual, each number being wildly cheered, until the list of selections given became twice what appeared on the program.

The performance of the Treble Clef club, Glee club and orchestra, all of which participated in the concert, was indeed creditable. Both the vocal clubs are well supplied with good voices, which, under the excellent training of the musical director, Miss Ailsie Goodrick, have developed remarkably pleasing qualities. This was exhibited especially in the dextre number, "Doan Ye Cry, Ma Honey," in which the well selected voices blazed an exquisite sweetness. The orchestral numbers were also artistically given under the capable direction of Miss Hazel Brown. The Glee club appeared to good advantage in a number of comic selections, and the "Japanese Tramps," by Richards, Hollowell and Colton, in costume, brought down the house. The "Japanese Fan Song," by the Treble Clef club in costume, was daintily given and produced a very pretty effect. This solo part of Miss Margie Stott in the lullaby, and of Mr. Hayden in the medley, deserve especial mention.

The program was as follows:

James Sevier had $35 taken from the safe in his blacksmith shop on West Morgan street while he was away during the noon hour Friday. The money was in a small apartment of the safe, which has small door that was locked when Mr. Sevier left the shop. He always leaves the sliding door of his shop open at noon and the iron door of his safe was also open. The lock on the small door of the inside apartment was not broken and had evidently been opened with a key. Mr. Sevier missed the money soon after his return to work in the afternoon. The police department was notified and every effort will be made to apprehend the guilty party or parties.

MR. BUSCH HERE.

Peter Busch, of St. Louis, who is to be vice president of the Seligman Bros. company, formed for the extensive shipping of the famous Gravel Springs water, was in town Thursday accompanied by A. Gull, the chemist of the Busch brewery of St. Louis. Mr. Hotty, of the same firm, was also a member of the party. The visit of Mr. Busch was for the purpose of satisfying himself of the capacity of the local springs and upon his return expressed himself fully convinced of the represented capacity of the Gravel Springs.

SKIRTS UP TO $6.50, THIS WEEK $3.05 AT THE LEADER.

At the conclusion of the program the members of the clubs with some of the teachers and other friends assembled at Vickory & Merrigan's, where an excellent banquet was enjoyed.

Look at That Oven

If there is one thing in the world about a range that interests the housewife more than another, it is the oven. Listen to this:

The doors and racks in all Buck's ovens ARE WHITE ENAMELED, something you'll find in no other ranges. This not only makes it as easy to keep your oven as sweet and clean as a china dish, but the white enamel retards radiation REFLECTS the heat. You don't have to turn a pan of bread to have it bake evenly. Your roast won't dry up or shrink in a Buck's oven; it's really a self-baster.

And the oven is only one of the good points in a Buck's range.

Let Us Show You the Great Buck's Range

It will help you figure out the ten reasons why it is the best in the world. It will be a good chance for you to come in and become acquainted if you are not already one of our customers. At the same time you will see what a lot of other good things we have for you here. It makes no difference whether you are buying or not—we'll be glad to see you.
